FATHOM

Fathom, an album of underwater field recordings from the polar regions of Earth, by Douglas Quin, to be released on vinyl in February 2010. TAIGA records presents this LP, mastered by James Plotkin, cut direct to metal from 24-bit wav files and pressed on 200-gram virgin vinyl for ultimate detail and clarity. Arctic on one side, Antarctic on the other, over 40 minutes of unbelievable natural sounds from areas of our planet that few of us will visit. Packaged in custom letterpress materials printed by Studio on Fire featuring drawings by Mitchell Dose and an essay by René van Peer.
